AUGUST 2025 Report

Community First. Integrity Always.

Data Trends

Training

Deputies and staff participated in a diverse range of advanced training opportunities to strengthen response capabilities and ensure best practices across all divisions. Courses included Tactical Operations Liability, Crime Scene Technician, Critical Response Team (CRT) and CRT Sniper, Drone Team, Dive Team, School Resource Officer Refresher, Technical Crash Reconstruction, FBI Major Case, Stalking Investigations, and attendance at the National Tactical Officers Association (NTOA) Conference in Washington, D.C. These trainings enhance operational readiness, investigative skills, and overall public safety strategies.

Community Policing

Community engagement remained a focus with deputies participating in multiple outreach events designed to build trust and strengthen relationships. Highlights included Cops and Cones, the Macatawa Resource Center Community Night, National Night Out at Kollen Park, the Back2School Event at Kollen Park, and Kid's Day at a local mobile home community. Each event provided opportunities for positive interaction, safety education, and connecting with residents of all ages.
